Geneva, Nov. 1.—Italy's Pompeo Aloisi and France's Pierre Laval talked long and earnestly in this international city of nations tonight on the possibility of a peaceful settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian conflict. Even as they met, the League of Nations committee of eighteen decided to fix an early date for member powers to cut off all purchases from "at state."

The League's general staff of 82 nations, which is expected to meet tomorrow, but several delegates proposed November 14 or 15 for the actual start of the boycott. The earlier date was suggested by Anthony Eden, Great Britain's minister for League affairs. Nothing definite came immediately from the conversations between Laval and Baron Aloisi. But French sources, however, indicated M. Laval still was pursuing his policy of conciliation, with the hope of at least laying the groundwork for an eventual accord.

Tomorrow the Baron will meet Sir Samuel Hoare, the British foreign secretary. Baron Aloisi arrived earlier to be greeted at the station with a Fascist salute from a group of Italians, a spokesman for Italy told the Associated Press.

They do not refuse to negotiate peace, but we are not running after peace. However, any peace terms to be acceptable to Italy, must recognize our security needs and second our expansionist requirements.

"I am not afraid," Laval said, "of the Ethiopian provinces bordering on our colonies and the actual territory so desperately needed for the expansion of our people."

One peace plan under discussion in League circles, particularly by the French, envisaged the following: The League would extend its assistance to the central provinces that form the nucleus of Ethiopia, each outlying province would have a governor with an Italian administrator sitting beside him; these administrators would be under a chief Italian administrator at Addis Ababa. Ethiopia would end part of Omani province to Italy and in return would get a port on the Red Sea.

Dr. Augusto Vasconcelos of Portugal, chairman of the committee of 52, meanwhile acknowledged with thanks the communication from Secretary Hull of the United States which was regarded as giving moral support to League efforts to end the war.

WALLACE FIXES ALLOTMENT FOR POTATO CROPS

Tax Of 45 Cents Bushel Will Be Placed On Excess

Washington, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Moving toward enforcement of the controversial potato control law, Secretary Wallace today announced a tax exemption allotment of 228,600 bushels for 1935.

All potatoes harvested after December 1 and sold in excess of that quantity will be subject to a tax of approximately 45 cents a bushel. The AAA estimated that 1935 production at 350,000,000 to 355,000,000 bushels, and said that in the past, 64 to 65 per cent of the crop has been marketed.

This allotment, the AAA contended, would tend to give next year's crop a purchasing power equal to that of the period 1919 to 1929.

At the same time, however, an official said that if the crop next year in about the size estimated, then the allotment will permit movement of about all of the commercial crop to market without the tax. Tax exemptions stamps must be placed on all cargoes of potatoes sold.

Loud protests already have been registered against the law. Open predictions of defiance and potato bootlegging have been made. At one time Wallace said he would do everything possible to keep from enforcing the law, but at a potato growers hearing the very next day the protests against this stand were so vociferous that he retracted.

Wallace also announced today state allotments totaling 228,600 bushels, leaving a two per cent reserve of 4,322,000 bushels to be used in correcting inequalities in the state quotas.

Individual allotments cannot be made, said J. B. Hinson, director of the AAA division of potatoes, until funds are provided for administrative expenses.

The tax exemption allotment, the AAA said, was based on acreage, production and sales records of the various states.

The law provides for an increase or decrease of five per cent in the national allotment to meet changes in demand or supply conditions.

Total production last year was 355,427,000 bushels, and the average farm price was 44.9 cents per bushel. A crop of 356,000,000 bushels was forecast for this year with the average price at present, 46.1 cents per bushel.

In 1933, when the crop was 320,205,000 bushels, the average farm price was $2.3 cents, an increase from the average price of 39.3 cents in 1932. The price in 1929 was 13.15 cents a bushel.

Roosevelt's Son Is In Auto That Strikes Hedge

Chief Of Police Claims None Of Occupants Injured

Concord, Mass., Nov. 1.—(AP)—The youngest of the Roosevelt brothers, John, a Harvard sophomore, was in an automobile, Chief of Police William G. Ryan said today, which plunged into a hedge here early Sunday during a Concord debutante's coming-out party.

Chief Ryan said a girl companion, who was riding on the running board fell to the ground when the car left the road and struck a hedge at the Concord Country club. He said no one was hurt and no action was planned since the accident occurred on private ground.

Chief Ryan said he had investigated the party, at which select-man Richard B. McSwenney said he understood there was considerable noise. Ryan said he did not know who was driving the car.

The accident, reported by Chief Ryan, was the latest automobile mishap in a series which has involved three of the four Roosevelt brothers since their father became president.

John and his elder brother, James, were in a car last month when it was in collision with a narrow-gauge train after crashing through a crossing gate in Boston. John was slightly hurt, James emerged unscathed.

John forfeited $10 bail he had posted on being arrested this summer for speeding in Irvington, N. Y. James last year paid a fine of $10 and costs in Nashua, N. H. for speeding. Franklin D. Jr., a Harvard Junior, recently paid a fine for speeding at Hampton, N. H. The fourth brother is Elliott Roosevelt.

School Superintendent's Plan to Halt Hallowe'en Prank Ends in One Death

La Tour, Mo., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Charles F. McClure, school superintendent, whose move to guard his school against Hallowe'en pranks resulted in the death of one of his students was charged tonight with manslaughter.

Conviction on the charge of slaying Glenn Aldridge, 19, filed by County Prosecutor Wallace Cooper at Warrensburg, would carry a penalty up to ten years imprisonment.

McClure, held under $5,000 bond, sobbed out a heartbroken story of the incident after Aldridge died today in a Kansas City hospital from gunshot wounds in his chest.

"I didn't intend to shoot him," the 35-year-old school superintendent cried in the Warrensburg sheriff's office, where he went after learning of the youth's fatal wound.

"He ran against my gun and it was discharged. I only planned to frighten him."

The sheriff's office said Superintendent McClure related he had learned of a scheme of Hallowe'en pranks to carry away an outbuilding from the school property.

Deaths Are Caused By Shootings And Accidents

At least six persons are dead of shootings and accidents laid directly or indirectly to the nation's celebration of Hallowe'en.

Many had narrow escapes. Glenn Aldridge, 19-year-old La Tour, Mo., high school boy, died of a shot wound allegedly inflicted by a shotgun in the hands of Charles F. McClure, La Tour superintendent of schools, who sought to frighten Hallowe'en pranks.

A 13-year-old farm girl, Dorothy Little of near Maud, Okla., was slain under similar circumstances. County Attorney Tom Huser said.

Robert McRoberts, 10, was killed near Topeka, Kas., when he ran in front of a bus while helping his father right small buildings upset during the night.

A paper mache jack-o-lantern set fire to clothing of four-year-old Edna Greely at Reading, Pa., and she was burned fatally despite efforts of her mother to beat out the flames.

A 70-year-old hardware merchant, George Osborne, was arrested at Ransom, Kas., in the shooting of Cecil Zorrell, 18, wounded in the back, neck and face.

Bartlesville Oklahoma's city marshal Carl Kenyon, was named in a complaint signed by the mother of J. N. Horsley, 14, shot and wounded seriously in the left shoulder when he accidentally moved a bench into a city street.

Cletus Stone Who Escaped Chester Prison Captured

Convict Is Being Questioned By Officers Regarding Robberies

St. Louis, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Cletus Stone, one of three convicts who joined Basil Banghart in a break from the Southern Illinois prison at Chester last Columbus Day, tonight was piled with the questions of officers investigating recent robberies in St. Louis.

Stone, the last of the quartet of convicts who sent a commissary truck crashing through the prison gates to be captured, was arrested last night in St. Louis county. With him was his brother, Carl Stone, Mrs. Basil Banghart, wife of the convicted Touhy gangster, and another woman who said she was Miss Helen Barkley of Knoxville, Tenn.

Police today said the Stone brothers had been identified in one drug store robbery here and officers were questioning them in connection with a recent bank robbery at Henderson, Ky. Several guns were found in their automobile, deputy constables said.

Banghart, "the owl" of the Touhy gang, Stone and two other convicts, commanded a commissary truck at the prison on Oct. 12, circled the yards and drove it head-on through the gates. Banghart and two of his companions were captured an hour later after Banghart had been wounded by pursuing guards.

Ring 5 O'clock Curfew In City

Waukegan, Ill., Nov. 1.—(AP)—A five o'clock curfew was rung tonight in this "Gretna Green" of Illinois.

It applied not to children, but to all prospective brides and bridegrooms who planned their nuptials for the midnight hours.

Taking office as Lake County clerk, Russell H. Alford announced that Waukegan's career as a "marriage mill" was at an end. His first official act was the establishment on office hours for the issuing of marriage licenses.

Licenses will hereafter be issued from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. on weekdays and from 8 a. m. until noon on Saturdays. Alford ruled: "None will be available to romantic couples who want to say the vows before going home from a Saturday night party."

Although licenses will be issued with less abandon, Alford promised they would be cheaper. He said the price from now on would be $1. They were $5 "after hours."

HUGE REYNOLDS ESTATE DIVIDED BY HIGH COURT

$30,000,000 Will Be Distributed Among Relatives

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Division of the $30,000,000 estate of the late Zachary Smith Reynolds, Winston-Salem tobacco family scion, as proposed by his brother and two sisters, was approved by the North Carolina Supreme Court today.

The court, in an unanimous opinion written by Associate Justice Heriot Clarkson, upheld the decision rendered in Forsyth County Superior Court last March by Judge Clayton Moore.

Young Reynolds died in July, 1932, a few hours after he had been found mortally wounded by a pistol bullet in a bedroom of the family mansion, "Bernolds," near Winston-Salem.

The division of the estate as ordered by the courts provides $750,000 for Mrs. Libby Holman Reynolds, second wife of the tobacco heir after deduction of state and other taxes, 25 per cent of the estate or slightly less than $7,000,000 for Christopher Smith Reynolds, son of Libby Holman Reynolds; 37 1/2 per cent to Anne Cannon Reynolds, second daughter of the tobacco heir by his first marriage, to Anne Cannon, estimated at a little more than $9,000,000; and 37 1/2 per cent to R. J. Reynolds, Jr., Mrs. Mary Reynolds, and Mrs. Nancy Reynolds, his brothers and sisters of Zachary Smith Reynolds.

The brothers and sisters have expressed their intention to use the 37 1/2 per cent share going to them for charitable purposes.

The court settlement also provides payment of a compromise inheritance tax of $2,600,000 to the state of North Carolina. The question as to federal taxes has not yet been established.

Included in the 37 1/2 per cent for Anne Cannon Reynolds, second, is $1,600,000 given her and her mother to a pre-divorce settlement. Reynolds and Anne Cannon were married November 16, 1929. In November, 1931, she divorced him and six days later, November 29, 1929, he married Libby Holman, Broadway torch singer.

Using a .38 calibre revolver smuggled to him last night, the negroes, Sheriff Clancy said, opened fire on him when he went to their cell to disarm them after receiving a tip from a third negro prisoner.

A half dozen deputies, all, rushed to the sheriff's side and moved the negroes down with a volley of bullets.

The younger of the negroes, Henry "Buddy" Freeman, 22, was killed instantly, and his companion, Dave Hart, 24, was mortally wounded a few minutes later after he had attacked Coroner M. N. Odum, who had gone to the cell to examine the bodies.

Coroner Odum said he was called by Sheriff Clancy after the first exchange of shots.

"I rushed to the cell," the coroner said, "and went immediately to the cell on the second floor. There I found both men sprawled on the floor apparently dead. Between them lay a .38 calibre revolver. I picked it up and removed five discharged cartridges and one unexpended bullet, placing the empty weapon on a cell bench."

As I turned around Hart heaped to his feet, grabbed the gun and ran toward me. Jailor Maguire beat him off with his jail keys and he dashed down the jail corridor into an open cell, where he was killed."

Deputy Sheriff John Stewart, who rushed to the scene upon hearing the first shots, said he fired five times into the cell where the two negroes were lodged. He was wounded in the right arm by a bullet from the negroes' revolver as it ricocheted off the cell wall.

"When Hart ran down the corridor I followed him and shot my last bullet at him but missed," the deputy said. "I then called to the jailer and he cut the negro down, shooting through the cell door."

The wounds of Sheriff Clancy and Deputy Stewart were superficial and both remained on duty.

EASTERN STATES ARE BRACED FOR FURTHER SHOCKS

Willbur G. Voliva Believes End Of World Is Near

Zion, Ill., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Willbur Glenn Voliva, overseer of the Christian Apostolic church who occasionally predicts the end of the world, looked upon the earth's shivering spell today as an ominous sign.

He quoted the Bible, Matthew 24, verse 7: "For nation shall rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom and there shall be famine and pestilences and earthquakes in many places."

And he explained: "The Bible shows that these earthquakes are one of the ominous signs of the close of the present dispensation, the passing of the old order and the birth of a new order."

Although extensive in scope, the tremors did comparatively little damage except in Quebec, where railway tracks were twisted and broken near Doucet.

In other sections hundreds of sleeping citizens were awakened to find their beds swaying, their houses creaking, and the dishes rattling in their cabinets. Frightened and nauseated, they swamped police and newspaper switchboards with calls for information.

Ceologues attributed the "quake" which began shortly after 1 a. m. (Eastern standard time) and continued for more than an hour and a half, to a shifting of the earth's crust in response to the lifting of glacier pressure 35,000 years ago.

Dr. Chester A. Reeds of the American Museum of Natural History described it as "one of those instantaneous reactions that the earth makes to adjust the pressure on its surface."

Thousands of years ago only a geological second to the earth, he explained.

One death was attributed indirectly to the "quake." Mrs. Catherine A. Cook, 66, died in Watertown, N. Y., of heart disease, "aggravated, her physician said, by fright."

Dominion observatory officials fixed the epicenter at about 180 miles northwest of Ottawa, which was in fairly close agreement with the calculations of United States seismologists.

Traffic on the transcontinental line of the Canadian National Railways was disrupted when rails were wrenched from their bed near Doucet, and a fissure 250 feet long and 40 deep was reported to have opened on the shores of Lac Menjebas.

Rumbling across the border into the United States, the tremors shook all of New England and the area bounded by Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia and Maryland. To the north, shocks were felt in Quebec and New Brunswick, as well as in Ontario.

Physicians Declare That Woman Passenger In Car Will Die

Pickensville, Ill., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Two men were killed and another was fatally injured when an Illinois Central passenger train struck an automobile at a Beaucoupe grade crossing today.

A woman, Mrs. Ann Dunn, about 40 years old, was critically injured and physicians at a hospital here did not expect her to live.

Her husband, Allen Dunn, also about 40, and Lester Hawkins, 38, father of six children, were instantly killed. Clarence Shute, about 35, died shortly after he was brought to the hospital.

The four persons were returning from Anna, where Dunn had been released today from the state hospital. Allen Dunn, 38, was driving west on a wagon road which led under an Illinois Central embankment and across a track at grade.

When the car emerged onto the grade-level track, it was struck by the train and demolished.

Sheriff Robert Osburn said there was a warning bell at the crossing but he was unable to learn whether it was in operation at the time of the accident.

TRAIN KILLS TWO

Pickensville, Ill., Nov. 1.—(AP)—Two persons were killed and two were critically injured when an Illinois Central passenger train struck an automobile at a grade crossing at Beaucoupe, two miles west of here, today.

The dead were Lester Hawkins, about 38, father of six children, and Allen Dunn, about 40.

Seriously injured were Dunn's wife, Anna Dunn, and Clarence Shute. They were brought to a hospital here. Physicians did not expect them to live.

MORE TREMORS PREDICTED BY SCIENTISTS

Friday's Earthquakes Do Little Damage To Property

New York, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Seventeen northeastern states and three Canadian provinces were jarred by the most severe earthquake to hit this area in ten years today and scientists predicted it would be followed by further shocks.

Although extensive in scope, the tremors did comparatively little damage except in Quebec, where railway tracks were twisted and broken near Doucet.

In other sections hundreds of sleeping citizens were awakened to find their beds swaying, their houses creaking, and the dishes rattling in their cabinets. Frightened and nauseated, they swamped police and newspaper switchboards with calls for information.

A Protesting World

When individuals or nations don't like something they protest. They may not see what can be done to remedy the matter, but the protest relieves their feelings and lets the offending person or nation know what they think, in no uncertain terms.

Thus Germany protests against anti-Nazi utterances of Winston Churchill. British officials who are possessed of Nazi-phobia. The Germans do not like to have the British finger of suspicion pointed at them. Churchill's bitter words have stirred Berlin. But the protest is all that can be done about it just now; the words have been spoken, and they cannot be retracted. But the protest indicates they are going to stick in the German craw, and some day, maybe—

Meanwhile Great Britain protests against attacks by the Italian press. Newspapers in Italy do not write editorials with government approval, and the English know that the criticism of British policy is really from the Italian government. Hence the protest. The shoe is on the other foot; England is averse to the pointing finger from Rome.

In the United States protests are the fruit of high taxes. Citizens don't like the mounting tax schedules and the multiplying of things to be taxed.

DANCE, K. of C. Ballroom tonight.

They protest vociferously, but they pay. The taxing powers are not particularly interested in the protests as long as the revenue continues to flow.

It is a protesting world, and there seems to be nothing in it that meets universal approval. But there is one good thing to be said for continued protesting; it may lead to improvement sometime. However, it must be based on a real grievance, or it will be set down as mere grumbling.

Faults in The Earth

The earth is far from perfect, as widespread quakes prove to scientists. There are faults in the earth's crust, one of which has appeared in the St. Lawrence valley to cause tremors throughout seventeen eastern states and part of Canada.

The trouble dates back some 35,000 years to a time when millions of tons of ice mashed down the earth's outer shell as far south as the Ohio valley. The crust was literally bent down, but it did not break. It stood the pressure and made reservations.

Then the ice receded northward, as it is still doing. The bent crust began springing back to its normal size, a process that is continuing today, much to the discomfort of some millions of human beings who had nothing to do with the ice age and arrived on the scene thousands of years after it had passed into history.

In the processes of nature years mean nothing; time is reckoned in geologic ages, and the life span of a mere man is less than a split second. When we consider the ways of the natural world, we have little cause to worry over our own small cares. Things that may seem momentous to us cannot affect natural processes one way or the other, but the slipping of a few million tons of rock in the bowels of the earth may mean life or death for us.

"MOONLIGHT ON THE PRAIRIE"

Dick Foran, the singing cowboy, comes to the MAJESTIC Theatre Sunday in "MOONLIGHT ON THE PRAIRIE," a new type of Western drama.

To a thrilling Western drama of hard riding, roping, two gun fighters and romantic ladies, Warner Bros. have added the songs of the old West, two of them specially written for the production by two noted song writing teams, M. K. Jerome and John Hamlyn and Vernon Spencer and Bob Nolan.

Dick Foran, who has an exceptionally fine baritone voice, spent some years on the Western ranges, although he originally came from the East and has a Princetonian background. He is an expert rider, roper and marksman, and can sing as well as he rides—and act as well as he sings.

His leading woman is pretty red headed Shelia Mannors, also a singing rider who has done very capable work in many pictures. Others in the cast include George E. Stone, Joe Sawyer, Gordon Elliott.

The picture is thrilled with thrilling action and exciting sequences as well as containing a fascinating romance, set in the picturesque background of the High Sierras and the Western prairies.

County Relief Load Jumps to New High For Autumn Season

Report 1,393 Families Now Receiving Aid; Allocate Fund For November

The relief situation in Morgan county is more acute than it has ever been at this season of the year. Mrs. Tillie Kelly, county relief administrator, said yesterday. During the past month eighty new cases were received on the rolls. People who have been off the rolls for six months and some who have not received help for three or four years have reapplied for aid.

Mrs. Kelly received word late Friday from Wilford S. Reynolds, state administrator, that Morgan county's relief quota has been reduced $4,000 for the first 15 days due to a general cut in appropriations for Illinois.

Mrs. Kelly said this reduction will hamper the work of her office very much.

The number of families now on the rolls and actually receiving relief is now 1,393. There are 42 service cases where no relief is given, which bring the total case load to 1,435. Only in the dead of winter has this number been previously equalled.

The original allocation to the county to finance relief during November is $62,000, the largest grant in the history of the county relief administration. The situation is being met with state funds, and has been so for the past three months.

The conditions now so serious are due in part to suspension of operations of some industrial plants in the city. Another cause is the lack of relief projects. The relief unit has certified 991 employables to the Works Progress Administration, but thus far the projects set going in the county are small.

The F. and L. bridge club were entertained on Wednesday evening by Mrs. Wm. Devlin. Two tables were in play and high score favors were awarded to W. B. Flinn and Mrs. Lowell Leeper. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

WOMAN "BEHEADED" AT J.H.S. ASSEMBLY

It Was a Magician's Painless Illusion

A woman was "beheaded" on the stage of the Jacksonville High school auditorium yesterday morning. But it was Loring Campbell, professional magician, who manipulated the guillotine, and the job was painless, bloodless and more interesting than gruesome.

The entire school student population watched "Prof." Campbell delve into his bag of tricks. He went through the standard routine of card tricks, disappearing acts, etc., with a white rabbit to assist him.

It was the magician's lady assistant who drew the assignment to be guillotined. She faced the ordeal bravely, as she has on hundreds of other occasions.

The magician also is a ventriloquist and with his dummy, "Jerry," carried on a stirring conversation. The entertainment was one of a series of paid assemblies at the high school.

Only Weather Mark Set Thursday Was For Thunder Storm

October Summary Shows Little Unusual for Illinois in Climatic News

The last day of October was not the warmest day in the month, or did it show the greatest range of temperature in any 24 hours. The antics of the weather Thursday might lead many to think that these records were established, but other October days claim the honors.

The only thing which put the final day ahead was thunder and lightning. For on this day only did a thunder storm occur during the entire month.

The greatest daily range of temperature for the month, 44 degrees, occurred on the 2nd and 25th of October. The mean maximum temperature for the month was 68.9, and the mean minimum 44 degrees. The mean temperature was 56.45. The highest temperature was 87 degrees on Oct. 13 and the lowest 23 degrees on Oct. 7.

The rainfall for the month, precipitation, was 2.45 inches, and the greatest in any 24 hours was .93 of an inch on the 28th. There were nine rainy days, eighteen clear days, three partly cloudy, and ten cloudy days during the month.

Light frosts occurred on the 5th, 20th, and 29th. The killing frost sent the temperature to the month's low of 23 degrees. It was this frost that wrecked hopes that some of the late corn would mature.

Two Well Matched Teams Meet Here Today In Homecoming Game

Carrollton Flea Flickers are Good For Last Minute Marker As Crimson Lose Game 15-12

Two Carrollton "flea flickers" fanned out of the bag in the last two minutes of play, gave the Hawks a thrilling 15 to 12 victory over Jacksonville high Friday afternoon on the Crimfield, in another of the weird football games the local high has been playing this year.

Outplaying their rivals in both running and passing, the Crimson made their drive at the wrong times, and Carrollton, noted for its wide awake ball club, snatched at them to score points. The Crimson rolled up 10 first downs to four for their opponents, three of them figuring in the only sustained drive the Hawks made on their way to a touchdown.

A hammer and tong duel from the start to the finish, the game was not decided until the last minute of play when Carrollton, after recovering a fumble on their own, brought them to the one yard line, where they took two plays to send Banghart over the line with the winning touchdown. Only 56 seconds remained to play when they scored, but the Crimson took the next kick-off and completed a 40 yard pass from Leach to Davis to carry the ball to the Carrollton 20 before time expired.

To get their last touchdown, the Hawks suddenly sprung their flea flicker, consisting of a forward pass from Brady to Brady for a short gain, followed by a lateral to Oeser, who took a 20 yard run, and the second time 11 yards. Oeser also took one 13 yard pass from Brady, while the Crimson effectively choked off the running attack.

Crimson Score Safety.

But for a bit of eagerness to handle a punt, the Crimson might have come out if the game with a tie, but the attempt to handle the punt resulted in a safety, two of Carrollton's three point margin. The play came on the first play of the second quarter after the Hawks had scored their first touchdown without making a single first down, when Brady took the ball from the Crimson 40 to the 10, and Ransom muffed the bouncing ball. He hurried back to pick up the ball, tucked it under his arm, and then stepped into the end zone when Graves' Hawk end, bore down on him with all of the speed of a passenger train, scoring an automatic safety when he went down under Graves' diving tackle.

A bad pass from center, which none of the Crimson backs were able to handle, and recovered by Brady for Carrollton on the Crimson 20, gave the Hawks their first touchdown. Three Carrollton plays failed to gain over half a yard, and then Brady faded back and threw a long pass to Oeser, the Carrollton speed king taking the ball in the end zone for the touchdown. The attempted place kick for conversion was too low.

A fumble led to the Crimson's first score. Warren Breeding hopping on Roady's fumble on the Carrollton 44 yard line, A. Olsberger, withering aerial bombardment left the Hawks dazed as the Crimson sped down the field, Ransom firing one to Davis for 13 yards, another for seven, and then to Hamilton for six yards, and then the Rabbit sprinted through the Carrollton line for 11 yards to the seven yard line.

Basketball Pass Scores.

Carrollton lightened up their hold-in Ransom to three yards on two plays, and then knocking down a pass on the third down. Resorting to their tricks, the Crimson worked the take drive into the line with a basketball pass over the line for the touchdown, Ransom throwing to Hamilton in the end zone for the score. Hamiltons attempted place kick for conversion hit the left upright and bounded back into the end zone.

Jacksonville's second touchdown came in the fourth quarter after the Crimson had kept the Hawks shoved back all through the third period. Brady punted to the Crimson 45, to inaugurate the quarter.

Unhooking the longest pass of the game, the Crimson went into the lead for the first time early in the fourth quarter when Leach faded back and tossed a long one to Davis, who took it just over the head of the Carrollton safety man and then sprinted over the goal line, a ten yard run. The play started on the Crimson 36 yard line, after the Crimson had moved up to the Carrollton 40 on a 15 yard penalty for roughing Hopper when he attempted to punt on a third down from back of the middle of the field.

The Crimson gained 206 yards on running and passing plays, gaining 126 through the air on ten completed passes out of total of 23 attempts, one of which was intercepted. Carrollton gained 121 yards, 91 through the air and 30 over the ground. The Hawks tried 15 passes and completed six of them and had one intercepted.

Prep Grid Schedule

I.S.D. Tigers Go to Clinton

Today: Rout Has Open Date This Week

Games This Week
Saturday—J.S.D. at Clinton, White Hall at Highland, Pleasant Hill at Winchester.

Activity along the prep football front slows down to a minimum this week as teams get prepared for their Armistice Day contests against their natural rivals, particularly in the Illinois Valley conference.

Pleasant Hill's invasion of Winchester Saturday is the only game on the schedule, and it promises plenty of fireworks. The Wildcats are looking for a bit of revenge for past Pleasant Hill victories as see this game as their golden opportunity. Pleasant Hill is looking for the game as a means of getting themselves out of the conference cellar.

White Hall will move to Highland Saturday for its time-up for the game with Roodhouse on Armistice Day. Illinois School for the Deaf will go over to Clinton for a return match with the team that last year handed them a defeat. Clinton is rated as having one of the stronger teams in its section this year.

WHITE HALL GETS NEW TOGS FOR OLD

Pressure Heater Too Hot And Wrecks Others

White Hall high's gridders will be dolled up in brand new uniforms today when they appear on the gridiron at Highland as the result of an accident which caused the destruction of their other game-going clothing.

Making a determined effort to halt skin infections which have caused some trouble there this year, Coach Bruno Bierman ordered all equipment sterilized in a pressure heater. Leather equipment, particularly was damaged, pads being unable to stand the intense heat to which the equipment was subjected in an effort to kill the troublesome germs.

Seventeen pairs of pants and several jerseys were badly damaged during the process of sterilization. Business men of the city and other interested persons immediately formed a pool, sent the coach to St. Louis and there he selected equipment to replace the old.

LUCILLE KUMLE ENTERTAINS
Lucille Kumle entertained at her home, one mile south of Alexander, the members of a class in the Central Christian church Sunday school Tuesday evening with a wieners roast. Guests included Jean Drury, Charles Robinson, June Kume, Anna Louise Ratachak, Mrs. Ratachak, Helen Beck and Jo Ann Drury.

Tigers Go Away, So Cubs Will Gambol

I. S. D. Regulars To Take On Clinton; Reserves To Play Converse

While the Tigers are away their Cubs are going to play, Athletic Director S. Robey Burns announced yesterday, as he completed plans for the participation of three I. S. D. teams in games today.

The Tiger regulars, all set for a hot battle at Clinton, will leave this morning, while the reserves stick around home to entertain the Converse high team of Springfield on the I. S. D. field.

This morning the 13-14 year old I. S. D. team will meet the freshman-sophomore team from Jacksonville high in a rubber game each team having won previously this year by 6-0 scores. The game for the youngsters will be called at 10:30.

Burns will accompany the Tiger regulars to Clinton where he is expecting a lot of football. He points out that the Tigers kicked St. Teresa of Decatur by one point, 14-13, while Clinton won from them by a 9-6 score. Burns will start almost his regular line-up, with Baumann and Witczak at ends, Dietrich and Pepperdine at tackles, Tuleja and Dioro at guards, Capt. Karol at center, Ariano, Zehn, Wildrich and Arman in the backfield. Rajski, Madison, Dhondt, Racz, Borganski, Torisky, Schroeder and Durlo will be the reserves. Otten has gone to his home at Sterling to attend funeral services for a relative, and Clements has been ousted from the squad temporarily for disciplinary reasons.

The game at Clinton is called for 1:30 p. m.

Burns is leaving Mike and Gohen, ends, Smoerk and Neimeyer, tackles, Johnson and Irwin, guards, Huml, center, Dwick, Burns, Carlson and Capt. Wells behind to meet the Converse team. McDade, Vann, Mitlick, Long, Levin, Love, Davis, Vegas, Korando, Barr, Ralsky, and Gasparini will be the reserves.

The Converse game is scheduled for 1:15 p. m. in order to be nearly out of the road before the Illinois-Eastern Teachers homecoming game.

Beardstown Beats Havana Eleven 13-0

Victory Leaves Tigers Out In Front For Spoon River Title

Havana, Nov. 1.—Driving through Havana for one touchdown in the second quarter, and intercepting a Havana pass and returning it for another touchdown, Beardstown high today became the outstanding team in the Spoon River conference by turning back a hitherto undefeated Havana high team 13 to 0.

Stopping the Rough Riding Bennis Sheridan all afternoon, the Beardstown Tigers swarmed over every Havana ball carrier most of the time. Their sole serious threat in the fourth quarter, carried Havana to the Beardstown four yard line, but there the Tigers challenged and tossed back the Duck challenge.

It was during the fourth quarter that Beardstown virtually put the game on ice when Bell intercepted one of Havana's desperate passes. Bell snagged the leather between his own 40 and 50 yard line, and dashed to a touchdown.

Beardstown used straight football to drive through Havana in the second quarter for their first touchdown, completing one double reverse with a forward tacked on the end for a 30 yard gain to the ten yard line and then smashing it across, Lindley carrying the kick.

Lindley's punting was one of the outstanding features of the game. He kept the ball away from Sheridan all afternoon. Duffmeier plunked for the point after the first touchdown.

Franklin Loses To Scottville Quintet

Franklin, Nov. 1.—Scottville high turned back Franklin's varsity basketball team in the opening game of the season here tonight when Bilger went wild to score 18 points that led to a 29 to 18 victory. Franklin's reserves won the opening game, however, 25-23 in a thrilling finish.

Coach Laughorn used all of his varsity players in the opening game, but couldn't find a combination that could stop Bilger's sensational shooting. The box score:

The GOLDEN FEATHER

by Robert Bruce © 1935 NEA Service, Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY
JEAN DUNN, secretary to DONALD MONTAGUE, lawyer, delays her answer where BOBBY WALSH, automobile salesman, asks her to marry him.
At The Golden Feather Hotel, where SANDY HARRIS, whose business connection is vague, introduces LOUIS and Jean to MIL and MISS LEWIS and Bobby arrives to sell some bonds for Lewis. He tells them to Donald Montague. Lewis buys a car.

LARRY GREEN, federal agent, is trying to locate WILLIAM LEWIS, bank robber. He learns about the bond transaction and understands that the bonds were stolen. Larry believes the car Lewis bought was stolen. Bobby undertakes to find out.

Jean goes to her home town for a vacation. She meets a man who tells her and agrees to marry him. Bobby finds an old criminal record book in the car. He finds the name of Lewis and Sandy both have criminal records. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXVII

A BIG dark blue sedan sped swiftly along the concrete road. Its driver slouched behind the wheel, a cigarette drooping from his lips, his air one of careless negligence; but his eyes were alert, and his hands held the wheel firmly as the car hummed along at an even 65 miles an hour.

Beside him sat a broad-shouldered, athletic young man in a gray suit and a Panama hat. He sat half-turned, his arm over the back of the front seat, so that he could talk to the two men in the rear. One of them was small and dapper, a felt hat pulled low over his eyes; as he raised his left hand to the car he held his mouth it could be seen that the hand lacked the index finger.

The man beside him was burly, with a brick-red face and sparse red hair. He stared absently at the youth in the front seat with eyes of a light, expressionless blue—pale eyes that, when you looked at them, seemed to be frighteningly cold.

"Once again," he said, "you say the gas button is back at the cashier's desk!"

The man in front nodded. "An' he can kick it without moving off his stool," said the red-haired man meditatively.

"Yeah. That's it."

"Okay. I'll take care of him. Shorty waits at the wheel. Winky comes with me—you say you got to do the covering, outside, Oklahoma?"

The man in the front seat nodded again. "Yeah. They got me too well spotted when I cased the joint."

THE red-haired man frowned slightly. "We could use you inside," he said.

"I'm just telling you," said the man in front, "I'm not going in that bank. See?"

There was a brief silence. "Okay," said the red-haired man at last. "You'll be on the steps, then."

The other patted a sub-machine gun which lay in his lap, and nodded. "With Annie," he said.

The car came up a low rise, swung to the left, and came to the outskirts of a little town. The driver eased its speed down to a sedate 25, and the car slid silently down a tree-lined street, past white houses that drooped amid shaded lawns.

The curb before the bank was vacant and the car unostentatiously drew up to a halt beside it. The driver did not shut the motor off.

He simply shifted into low gear, kept his foot on the clutch pedal, and loitered behind the wheel in the deceptively careless manner which seemed to be his unvarying habit.

The doors of the car opened. The two men in the back seat got out first; the red-haired man kept one hand in his coat pocket, and the smaller one, folded his arms to carry a large, ungainly something under his coat. They looked casually up and down the street and walked into the bank. The red-haired man in the lead. Then the broad-shouldered youth in the front seat walked up the steps and stood by the door, a sub-machine gun in his hands.

THE bank was quiet and peaceful. Inside, Mr. Hobart, back at the cashier's cage, was counting out a thin sheet of bills to a farmer; he looked up and smiled a dry, banker's smile as the farmer pocketed the money and stepped away, and saw a burly man with red hair striding toward him.

This man wasted no moves. Half-way across the lobby he took his right hand from his pocket. It came out holding a .45 automatic, whose blue-black flash glinted softly in the dim light. Mr. Hobart stared at it, his eyes wide open. Before the first shock of surprise had passed he thought, with a flood of relief, of the tear gas installation, and prepared to reach out with one foot and touch the button that would release the gas.

But the red-haired man was ahead of him. In the fraction of a second that Mr. Hobart was lightening his legs muscles to move his foot the 11 inches to the gas button, the man leveled his pistol and fired.

In the ordered quiet of the little bank the crash of the automatic was like the explosion of a 10-inch shell. Mr. Hobart spun half around and gently sank to the floor, oblivious to guns, tear gas and everything else. A stenographer, who was clicking a typewriter a dozen feet away, gave a frightened little scream and looked up with a face as white as milk; her hands frozen to her typewriter.

Mr. Dunn, president of the bank, opened the door to his private office and came into the lobby—to find a dapper little man confronting him with a vicious-looking sub-machine gun. Mr. Dunn backed against the wall, his hands in the air. A moment later the stenographer and the farmer joined him there, while the little man with the gun smiled evilly and gently swung his gun back and forth so that its ugly muzzle pointed at one after another in turn.

The red-haired man had gone behind the grille. He cast a contemptuous glance into Mr. Hobart's cage, saw Mr. Hobart lying motionless in a pool of blood, and motioned with his automatic for the young clerk to open the safe.

"Step on it," said the red-haired man harshly. "I haven't got all day." He grinned, a watery, sloaty grin that did not extend to those pale eyes, and added, "I got an engagement down the road that I'm especially anxious not to miss."

The fumbling clerk swung the door open. So far everything had gone on schedule. The cashier had been shot down before he could touch off the tear gas. The others were

Senator Searcy Addresses Meet Of Republicans

Candidacy Of R. B. Oxley Boosted At Friday Session

A large audience crowded the second floor of the Peacock Inn last night in a mass booster meeting in support of the candidacy of R. B. Oxley for county commissioner, subject to the choice of the voters on Tuesday, Nov. 5. Harry T. Strawn, county Republican chairman, presided. The principal speaker was Senator Earl B. Searcy of Springfield, who called attention to the danger of losing our present form of government and warned against teaching young people that everything was wrong with the past history of the United States.

Mr. Oxley spoke briefly, as follows: "I promise the voters of Morgan county that if elected, I will give them my best in public service. I wish to say that the tuberculosis sanitarium tax, is not a new tax and not an increased tax. We should all rally to the support of the sanitarium, which is a wonderful institution for the care of those so unfortunate as to be afflicted with tuberculosis."

Walter Fearnsworth, Republican commissioner and Attorney Carl E. Robinson spoke in behalf of Mr. Oxley. Representative Hugh Green presented Senator Searcy to the audience in brief but well chosen remarks.

After urging Republican success at the coming election, Senator Earl B. Searcy of Springfield, minority leader of the senate, and a Republican candidate for nomination for governor next year, launched into a discussion of fiscal affairs.

"The increase of fifty per cent in the state sales tax was brought about in the face of opposition by Republicans," declared Searcy, "at the instance of Harry Hopkins, chief administrator, who now says Illinois can have no more federal relief aid after December 1. Illinois taxpayers probably wonder when Hopkins will make up his mind to what extent he expects to punish and penalize this state."

"Ours is a farming community. Republicans are looking to an improvement upon New Deal farm policies. Agriculture is entitled to stabilized prices; and, for one, I don't think foreign farm products, in competition with American farmers, have any place in this country."

"It is highly important that we elect men to local government offices who will take orders first from the taxpayers of their own counties, and then from Washington. At present New Dealers seek to invade local government and superimpose upon the people a highly centralized federal system."

Jeffersonian Club Members In Meeting Friday

District U. S. Attorney How- ard Doyle Is Speaker

Accomplishments of the Roosevelt administration were reviewed by U. S. District Attorney Howard Doyle of Decatur in an address to the Jeffersonian Club and Auxiliary here last night, followed by his unqualified prediction that President Roosevelt will be re-elected in 1936.

The Decatur attorney came to address the Jeffersonian rally in place of Speaker of the House John P. Devine, who was called to Chicago late in the afternoon by urgent business. Mr. Devine sent a telegram to club officials expressing regret that he could not be here.

Sharing the time on the program was Attorney William Wolfe of Murphysboro, Ill., a prominent young Southern Illinois Democrat. Wolfe also reviewed national administration records, advising young men and women to affiliate with the Democratic party for the best interests of the country.

Max Thompson, president of the Jeffersonian Club, introduced Clifton C. Davis, candidate for re-election to the county board of commissioners in next Tuesday's election. Mr. Davis in a few brief remarks pledged himself to continued service to the best of his ability, if elected again.

Appearing as principal orator at the court house meeting, U. S. Attorney Doyle launched into a review of major accomplishments of the national administration. He referred to President Roosevelt not as a Democratic president, but as a president of all the people. Roosevelt is a great humanitarian, the speaker said, and his leadership extends to all Americans regardless of who they are.

Chairman Thompson urged the audience to support Mr. Davis for commissioner next Tuesday. "As chairman of the county board he has helped balance Morgan county's budget," Thompson said. "For the best interests of the county, Mr. Davis should be re-elected. He has been an economical and efficient commissioner."

Mrs. Henry W. English also endorsed Mr. Davis in a short talk and as president of the Jeffersonian Auxiliary urged his election.

A large audience attended the court house meeting. Musical entertainment was given by Truman Reynolds and Pete Riggs.
